Our feature this month is local author, Renee Hand. Her book, Magic Hearts is a Romance novel set in the Medieval times around the 1600's. It's that time of year when the ghosts and goblins will be out and that old Black Magic is in the Air. The prologue sets the stage for a long and dangerous journey for Corrine McCathy and Rebekah two sisters who are very close, are about to take. The husband of Corrine, Rolin, is a soldier of great strength and cunning who has left his wife for months on end as he fights in battles far, far away. As the story develops, we learn of the abusive nature their relationship has taken. Corrine knows that she must leave her husband. Even more important than her own life is the life of her twins, who are one month old when Corrine decides to leave the castle and her abusive husband.

As Corrine prepares her bags, she can't help but think of the spitefulness her husband will have once her returns to see her gone. To make matters worse, the twins are not the husband's children. The betrayal Rolin will feel will be deep. Rolin's revenge may be sweet...you have to read the book to learn which it will be.

This book keeps you engaged throughout with a mother's love for her children, sibling rivalry, lover's quarrels, friendships that run deep, womanizing behavior, betrayal, and chivalry. There is never a dull moment.
