October 2006
Young Teen Edition
Book Blurb™

Our teen feature this month is author, Brandon Mull. His book, Fablehaven is set in Connecticut. This is a fantasy book that teens and adults will enjoy. Our two main characters Kendra and her brother Seth have one set of grandparents, the Larsens, that died recently and a paternal set, the Sorensens, that no one ever sees. Eleven year old Seth believes his paternal grandparents are hermits and creepy at best.

Just when you thought Halloween could not be entertaining via a good book, along comes first time author Brandon Mull. It's that time of year when the ghosts and goblins, no make that imps, fairies, and a golem will be out. This story is all about what happens when the rules are not followed by the supernatural beings and the human beings. The fate of Fablehaven, a private and well kept reserve for dreadful creatures, is in the hands of Kendra and Seth.

Will good triumph over evil? Will Kendra and Seth save Fablehaven? Will the dynamic duo of brother and sister see their parents again? Will Seth break the rules too many times and pay for it with his life? This book keeps you wondering what mysterious creatures will be met as Seth and Kendra go into the forbidden forest. You have to read the book to learn the answers to these questions and more. There is never a dull moment.
