PRESS RELEASE

CONTACT: Nicole R. Jackson

In honor of National Parents' Day, which is celebrated the fourth Sunday each July, we welcome Mrs. Cheryl L. Pope. She will be discussing her book from 2-4 p.m. on July 26, 2008 at As The Page Turns Bookstore & Gallery.

Cheryl Lynn Pope is a local author. She and her husband Lary have two beautiful children Kondace Martin and Zaria. Cheryl frequently pens articles spotlighting community organizations. She has an enormous love for children and her life is illustrated by that. She has founded many children based programs such as "The Who Knew Career Program," a mentoring and job shadowing program.

In 2005 Cheryl took a selfless leap into the nonprofit sector when she founded Outfits for Angels, a clothing donation charity that aims to provide clothing for needy children in the metro Detroit area. She is an active volunteer with Wise Steward Ministries, a financial literacy program for youth ages nine through eighteen.
